

MANAGER OF MCDONALD'S RESTAURANT IN CHESANING RECEIVES PRESTIGIOUS GLOBAL AWARD

Sue Powell, Manager of the McDonald's Restaurant in Chesaning, has won a Ray Kroc Award, a tribute to the top performing 1% of McDonald's Restaurant Managers globally. Sue was one of only 365 McDonald's Restaurant Managers around the world, from 60 markets, to receive the honor, which includes a cash prize and a trophy. Sue who has been working for McDonald's for 32 years, will be awarded her prize on April 22, 2020 at the Ray Kroc Awards Gala in Orlando, Florida.

The Ray Kroc Award recipients play a critical role in delivering a truly outstanding customer experience. Tony D'Anna, Owner/ Operator of the Chesaning McDonald's: "Sue does an exceptional job at running the restaurant, and providing a friendly and inclusive environment for customers and employees alike. We are so happy that she is a part of our organization. We're delighted that we are able to recognize Sue in this way for her commitment to McDonald's and for all her hard work."

McDonald's is committed to creating employment opportunities for people of all ages and from all backgrounds, as well as boosting employability to help people gain the skills and experience, they need to progress in their careers. McDonald's provides opportunities for progression and promoting from within; around 90% of restaurant management began their careers as crew members.

About McDonald's

McDonald's is the world's leading global foodservice retailer with over 37,000 locations in 120 countries. Over 90% of McDonald's restaurants worldwide are owned and operated by independent local business men and women.