THE STATE BANK PROMOTES OFFICER

FENTON, MICHIGAN, July 10, 2018 - The State Bank is proud to announce the promotion of Stephanie Domina to Officer. Stephanie joined the bank in November 2015 as a branch manager in Birch Run, and more recently moved to The State Bank Chesaning branch to serve as manager there. During her tenure, she has consistently grown in her role. In her new position, Domina will be responsible for normal day-to-day branch activity and employee growth, as well as the facilitation of mortgage renewals.

“I look forward to continuing my commitment to excellent customer service, building up coworkers, and helping The State Bank grow our communities. I am grateful that The State Bank has deemed my efforts in the workplace and community worthy of this promotion,” says Domina.

Brooke Jansen, Retail Assistant Vice President, states “Stephanie’s dedication to customer service and employee enrichment, along with her commitment to quality and continued learning provide a wonderful example of what we look for in a bank officer. She is a valued member of our team!”
