FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

United Financial Credit Union Employees Spread Acts of Kindness in their Communities

United Financial Credit Union started a Kindness Campaign with their employees in October. The Credit Union recognized how the pandemic and other factors have taken a toll on the mental health of so many people. They wanted to do something to help spread some kindness into their communities.

Staff were given funds to go into their communities and do as many acts of kindness as they were able to. Employees of the Credit Union were able to do over 210 acts of kindness to local schools, businesses and to various people at restaurants, gas stations or stores. They paid it forward at local restaurants, dropped off cleaning supplies to schools and other organizations, handed out gift cards at local stores or out in the community, took treats into local schools and businesses, paid for groceries at local stores and so much more.

Visit their website at www.unitedfinancialcu.org to learn more about the Credit Union and their Kindness Campaign.
